

Minister forecasts 'tempered' grants

Minister of Municipal Affairs, the Hon. Steven West, was in Elk Point last Wednesday as part of his tour of the province, and met briefly with Town Council to hear their concerns. Mayor Ed Buck opened the session with an expression of appreciation for the "astronomical list" of the Provincial government's accomplishments in the local area, ranging from construction of the bridge and upgrading of Highway 41 to the now-being-tendered hospital addition.

Concerns raised by the Town were in regard to Municipal Assistance grants, the Alberta Electric Energy Marketing Agreement review, constituency boundary review, home schooling, and the lack of directional signage on Highway 16 indicating the location of Fort George - Buckingham House.

Mayor Buck told the Minister that the Forts are "the jumping-off place for tourism" in northeast Alberta, and that signage on the Yellowhead is needed to direct tourists to the historic sites. West, whose constituency these signs would be in, agreed to take the matter to the minister now responsible for highways.

The Hon. Mr. West gave minimal hope on the municipal assistance grants, in view of the Province's $2.6 billion deficit, which Premier Ralph Klein has vowed to balance in four years. "It's going to be tight," he warned, and although the grants will continue, they will be "tempered."

The Minister of Municipal Affairs will be looking closely at his department and ways to make it more efficient, which include "major changes" in the housing division, tax concessions on seniors' housing, and the possibility of autonomy for Improvement Dis-

New concept for centre to be explored

A new concept in community centre planning was discovered by Mayor Ed Buck recently when he was in Edmonton in his capacity as School Board Trustee, looking at plans for modernization of F.G. Miller High School later in the decade. He asked the Department of Education about the possibility of community involvement in school projects and "faces lit up like light bulbs."

He was told that the community of Andrew had recently undertaken such a project, and later toured that facility, which has added their town office, meeting rooms, weight rooms and sauna, a bowling alley, library and little theatre onto their school during renovations. The Town, recreation board, service clubs and other groups assisted in funding the project.

The concept of a complex which can be used twelve months of the year by the entire community is a new concept which Buck feels will be "the trend of the future." The concept is very practical, with the entire complex using one centralized mechanical core, and may make additional funding sources accessible.

Buck asked the County of St. Paul's Board of Education for their reaction on such a project, and was given approval in principle to looking into this. Town Council also expressed enthusiasm for the idea.

Other business coming before Town Council at their January 11 meeting included ratification of a recommendation that Gayle Fakeley be granted Permanent Part Time status as Playschool instructor.

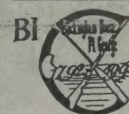

Appointment of three new Community Services Board members were also ratified. Sharon Lafrance will serve for a two year term and Sharon Smith and Diane Wolanuk for three year terms. The terms vary in length so that all terms do not expire at once, which would result in a lack of continuity on the Board.

Councillor Betty Callbeck reported on the Inter-Agency meeting she attended, and said she felt it was very worthwhile for a member of Council to take part in the monthly information-sharing session.

WE KNOW IT'S DOWN HERE SOMEWHERE - The Town of Elk Point Public Works crew had a chilly job last Wednesday, when a water main erupted on 51 Avenue between 50 and 51 Streets. Water from the break turned that block, 50 Street and 50 Avenue as far east as the Town Office into an early morning river, but was swiftly cleaned up by the crew, who also had the break repaired by late afternoon. That portion of 51 Avenue is part of the Town's wish list for future revamping with new utility lines and paving, when funding becomes available.

BICENTENNIAL

Wrapped up in report

Over two years of planning, fundraising and carrying out the multitude of steps in presenting the multiple celebrations marking the Bicentennial of Fort George - Buckingham House was wrapped up tidily into a fifty page report last Thursday, with the hard working members of the Bicentennial Committee going over the report word by word, page by page, to make sure it was complete and ready for presentation.

The final meeting followed a supper for the members, at which each received a poster, crest, certificate of appreciation and a Bicentennial coin. Peggy Fidler Zaraska presented Bicentennial Coordinator Billie Milholland with a plaque and a pottery cowboy hat, along with messages of thanks from herself, Louise Crane and other Fidler descendants who were proud to have their ancestor honored as a western Canadian hero. She also had messages of thanks for Fidler Reunion organizer Louis Verhagen, who has been made an honorary member of the family and is now known as 'Little Fidler.'

Five scrapbooks crammed with clippings show that news of the Bicentennial and its projects has spread not only across Alberta, but into ad-

Annual meeting speakers confirmed

Guest speakers for the Annual Meeting of the Elk Point Chamber of Commerce have now been confirmed.

Rob Miller of Bonnyville Community Futures will be present to acquaint the group with Alberta North, while Grant Nicholas from the Crown Prosecutor's Office will be giving insight into dealing with NSF Cheques.

The meeting is scheduled for 6 p.m. on Wednesday, February 3 at the Empress Banquet Room and all interested individuals are invited to attend.

tricts. Good management and cuts are needed, and expectations across the board must be realistic, West said. "We have to temper our needs. There's nothing free." He forecasts increased user fees for services that have previously been subsidized by the various levels of government.

The AEEMA review is now being scrutinized, but West feels AEEMA is vital to the northern part of the province, although "the south perceives that they are subsidizing the north" and thinks it would be fair if the north were "shielded by funds from General Revenue." West will pass on information to the Town regarding any increases and the reason for them.

The changes in constituency boundaries will be going before the Legislature on January 27, at which time some amendments will be allowed and brought forward, however, he had little hope for amendments to the changes in the St. Paul constituency. "There was a logistical problem with the last census - they had to dilute some constituencies and look at population bases." He met with fellow MLAs Doug Cherry and John Drobot "to see how to draw the lines" but found that "wherever you go, corridors of life will be disrupted."

The growing trend to home schooling and private schools is "at the forefront of discussion" and may be a symptom that the public school system needs changing. However, West said, "we can't erode the public school system." Improper supervision of some home schooling situations is a concern. West feels the whole school system will "go through some interesting times" in the next few years as problems get ironed out.

TIDBITS

What this country needs is more people to inspire others with confidence, and fewer people to discourage any initiative in the right direction; more to get into the thick of things, and fewer to sit on the sidelines merely finding fault; more to point out what's right with the world, and fewer to keep harping on what's wrong with it; and more who are interested in lighting candles and fewer who blow them out.

Mustangs round up Elks

Dewberry Mustangs not only rounded up the Elk Point Elks Friday night, they chased them out into the back forty as well, with a decisive 8-1 victory before the largest crowd of the season.

SaskAlta's two top teams looked very equal throughout the first period, but none of the numerous shots on goal hit the net until one second into the last minute of play, when Blair Hanna scored for Dewberry off assists by Kent Boyd and Bruce Goldsmith.

The score remained at 1-0 for a full half a period, but then things went bad for the Elks as Dewberry got two goals in 47 seconds and added two more in the next nine minutes. Two of Dewberry's goals were scored by Darcy Whitlock, who got an assist on a third, while Kent Boyd and Dennis McCormick scored singles. Assists were by Eddy Simmons, Bruce Goldsmith, Jerry Kjenner, Tyrel Brock (3) and Dave McNeil.

The Elks made their lone goal of the game just under five minutes into the final period, with Dwayne Karbaszewski scoring off assists by Terry Wozniak and Mike Boratynec.

The final downhill run started with six and a half minutes remaining, when Dewberry racked up three more goals in four and a half minutes. Darcy Whitlock scored his third and fourth while Blair Hanna scored his second, unassisted. Whitlock's goals were both assisted by Tyrel Brock, while Dave McNeil and Alan Parr added one assist each.

Given the Elks' good record so far this season, one would suspect they just had a bad night, and that tonight's game against the same rivals, a make-up game postponed earlier in the season due to extreme cold, will be a whole different story. Come down to the A.G. Ross Arena at 8:30 this evening and find out for yourself. It's sure to be a sizzler!

Heinsburg aglow for season

Heinsburg was once more aglow with the lights on their giant Christmas tree this holiday season, with many residents joining in the spirit of things and decorating their homes as well. The community's efforts were assisted this year by PanCanadian Petroleum, who assisted in the big task of putting the lights in place. Thanks a lot from all who enjoyed the colorful spectacle this Christmas.

joining provinces and as far away as Derbyshire, England. A letter, photographs and clippings was received from Mary Fidler, wife of one of Peter Fidler's descendants in Bolsover, Derbyshire and thanked Elk Point for giving the early Canadian explorer the recognition she has been trying to muster in his original home town with little success. "Only two hundred years of history is not that interesting to the British," she commented.

The report spans fundraising projects, giving results of each, events and their attendance, business initiatives and jobs created, community involvement by a staggering list of groups, agencies and individuals, promotions and cross-promotions, promotional literature and its distribution, and a list of over 50 volunteers.

A separate financial report shows that the Bicentennial injected over $180,000 into the community. When the final bills are paid and final accounts received in the very near future, the Bicentennial will have had $181,965.51 income and will have spent $181,961.06, leaving a $4.45 profit. Both income and expenses were very close to the budgeted amounts predicted at the onset of the project two years ago, which were $180,572 in both cases.

A draw was made from entries received from those who clipped the reply coupons off their RendezVus West tabloids, with the winner of a CreeACTIONS rug and package of Bicentennial souvenirs being Sally Pitts of Dewinton, Alberta.

What's Happening At COMMUNITY SERVICES

On November 9, 1992, the provincial government announced the allocation of funds for a new Community Facilities Enhancement Program (CFEP).

An organization may apply for funding for more than one facility. Generally, any facility used for sports, recreational, cultural or other related family and community wellness purposes can be considered under CFEP II. A facility is eligible for funding only once in a calendar year. In Category A, there is up to a maximum of $10,000 per facility per year for engineering studies and up to a maximum of $5,000 per facility per year for marketing studies. In Category B, the maximum level of funding for any one facility in a calendar year is $125,000.

The CFEP II Information and Application package is now available. Contact the Alberta Lotteries office at 422-9014 for more information.

WELCOME ABOARD!

A warm welcome is extended to the three new members of the Community Services Board: Sharol LaFrance, Sharon Smith and Diane Wolanuk!

ANYONE INTERESTED?

Bus and Swim... Broomball? If anyone is interested in bus-ing to St. Paul for a weekly swim... or... forming a fun broomball team in Elk Point, please call Community Services at 724-3800. Both programs can start as soon as there are enough interested participants.

NATIONAL STUDENT LETTER WRITING COMPETITION

This competition is for students between 11 and 15 years of age.

Over the past 300 years, mail in Canada has been delivered via canoes, sailing ships, trains, trucks, planes and satellites (not to mention dogsleds and wagon trains). Imagine yourself being transported 300 years into the future, to the year 2293. Now, write a 500 to 1000 word letter back to a friend back here in the present, explaining how mail is delivered in the 23rd century.

It's all a celebration of Heritage Day 1993, marking 300 years of postal communications in Canada. Enter your letter in Canada Post Corporation's National Student Letter-Writing Competition and you could win the grand prize: your own personal computer and a copy of the book "Souvenir Postage Stamps of Canada."

Ask your teacher about the rules and how to enter. Then mail your letter to:

Public Relations Station 483
Canada Post Corporation
720 Heron Road
Ottawa, Ontario
K1A 0B1

Entry deadline is March 1, 1993.

DO YOU WORRY ABOUT FAILURE?

You've failed many times, although you may not remember.

You fell down the first time you tried to walk.

You almost drowned the first time you tried to swim, didn't you?

Did you hit the ball the first time you swung a bat? Heavy hitters, the ones who hit the most home runs, also strike out a lot.

R.H. Macy failed seven times before his store in New York caught on.

English novelist John Creasey got 753 rejection slips before he published 564 books.

Babe Ruth struck out 1330 times, but he also hit 714 home runs.

Don't worry about failure.

Worry about the chances you miss when you fail to try.

TEMPORARY WAGE POSITION AVAILABLE

A temporary wage position is available at Community Services from approximately February 1 to May 7, 1993. This position will include developing, implementing and promoting Volunteer Week activities for the Elk Point community. Interested individuals should have excellent communication and organizational skills. A history of community involvement is desired. Work hours are flexible. The deadline for applications is January 22, 1993. Call Community Services at 724-3800 for more information.

ENERGIZE '93

The Provincial Recreation Workshop "Energize '93" will be held in Red Deer from February 19 to 21, 1993.

The theme for Energize '93 is "TOGETHER...In Our Own Backyards," reflecting the co-operative spirit and innovation essential for continued success in providing recreation services. The social realities of the nineties have made communities more keenly aware of the vital need for recreation programs and services. Economic realities dictate that communities operate with a maximum of self sufficiency to properly deliver recreation programs and services.

Progressive and self-sustaining communities in Alberta are plotting new directions for recreation. Terms such as "restraint," and "cut-backs" are being replaced by more positive phrases; innovative collaboration, non-traditional cooperation, mutual interdependence, effective partnerships, doing more with more, and increasing human potential. Energize '93 is designed to capture the essence of all these optimistic strategies, which and be summed up in one word... "TOGETHER."

The schedule of events includes sessions on: Operating Facilities Efficiently, Community Partnerships, Diversifying the Financial Base, Effective Management of Volunteer Organizations, Active Living - The Wave Of The Future, Successful Fundraising, Understanding the Economic Contribution of Recreation, and much, much more!

Join us at Energize '93 for a great opportunity to learn more about recreation leadership and management, to acknowledge volunteer efforts and to network with colleagues. This Provincial Recreation Workshop is designed for mayors, reeves, chiefs, municipal councillors, recreation board members and other leaders involved in community recreation development. In addition to a terrific educational program, be sure to partake in the social activities Friday and Saturday evenings.

For more information or to register, call Community Services at 724-3800 or the St. Paul Recreation Office at 645-6353.

WAVE SWEPT BEACHES - My sister Virginia and I walked the beach near her home in Sointula, B.C., where giant waves of Pacific waters sloshed the gravelly beach and polished the driftwood to marble and ebony hues.

ISLAND CEDAR - Later we visited Port Hardy, on the north end of Vancouver Island: their Welcome is topped by a bear and a huge fish, all of carved cedar.

CONCRETE CANYONS - Calgary had its concrete canyons well decorated, when we visited there in June; zoo, parks and Devonian Gardens were part of our 'must-see' list.

Alberta Trails

By Irene Magnusson

Distant trails

I've not thought of myself as a particularly 'well-travelled' person, yet in the year just past, I've placed my foot on several trails quite distant from Elk Point. Here are just a few of my pictures, to prove it.

Editor's Note: Irene also had photos of Alert Bay, Port Moody, Edmonton's Legislature, Fort Edmonton and Kehewin Lake, but unfortunately, we ran out of room and will have to save those for another time.

Our Past

Steve Andrishak

During the fur trade era every fur trading post was required to keep a daily journal. This journal was usually written up by the chief clerk who was second in command at the fort. All these daily journals eventually ended up at the headquarters of their respective companies. Although Fort George was a North West Trading Co. post during 1794-95, its journals ended up in the Hudson's Bay Co. archives after the two companies joined forces shortly after 1820.

During the late 1920s, Dr. A.S. Morton, a professor of history of the University of Saskatchewan received permission from the Royal Colonial Institute of London, England to review these Fort George Journals. He also received a lot of useful information from the Public Archives in Ottawa. From the information he gathered from these two sources he was able to write a historical book about the happenings at nearby Fort George. His book was called The Journal of Duncan M'Gillivray 1794-95. This book was a limited edition printing of which only 350 were ever printed. They were numbered from one to 350 and were made available to a number of historical societies throughout Canada as well as to a few major museums. Because of the small number printed, this edition is considered a very rare edition, one which is almost impossible to buy today at any price.

In 1954, I became interested in acquiring this book and after a two year search by a book firm in Toronto, one turned up, book No. 317. Realizing that they were extremely scarce, I didn't hesitate to purchase it.

During the period of 1794-95 Duncan M'Gillivray was the head clerk of nearby Fort George and Angus Shaw was the Chief Factor. In this book many interesting happenings are described in Duncan M'Gillivray's own words. Although in this column I have selected only a small segment of his Journals of Fort George, it will give you some idea of what took place at this fort during the period of 1794-95.

Duncan M'Gillivray quotes the following in his journals: "When a band of Indians approach the fort it is customary for the chiefs to send a few men before them to announce their arrival, and to procure a few articles which they are accustomed to receive on these occasions - such as gun powder, a piece of tobacco and a little paint to besmear their faces, an operation which they seldom fail to perform, previous to their presenting themselves before the white people. At a few yards distance from the gate they salute us with several discharges of their guns, which is answered by hoisting a flag and firing a few guns. On entering the house they are disarmed, treated with a few drams and a bit of tobacco, and after the pipe has been plying about for some time, they relate the news with great deliberation and ceremony, relaxing from their usual taciturnity in proportion to the rum they have swallowed, till at length their voices are drowned in a general clamour. When their lodges are erected by the women, they receive a present of rum proportioned to the nation and quality of the chiefs, and the whole band drinks during 24 hours and sometimes much longer for nothing - a privilege of which they take every advantage - for in the seat of an opposition, profusion is absolutely necessary to secure the trade of the Indians. When the drinking match has subsided they begin to trade - they obtain a large keg of rum for 30 beaver pelts, a long gun for 14 beaver, a 3 point blanket for 6 beaver, an axe for two beaver, one fathom of Brazil tobacco for 3 beaver pelts, etc. etc." (The beaver pelt was the unit of value during bartering.) M'Gillivray continues: "The neighboring Indians are pouring in continuously from all quarters and the fort since that time has been a scene of drunkenness and brutality. This day in a quarrel betwixt two factions of the Crees, and Indian was butchered in a cruel manner - another young man was stabbed in the neck, but it is hoped he will recover. The drinking match is therefore stopped to prevent more mischief at this time." This gives you some idea of how the fur trading post operated during that period. Many other interesting happenings at nearby Fort George are recorded in this book, some will be selected in some future column.

WHAT'S NEWS AT THE LIBRARY?

A reminder that the Annual Meeting of the Elk Point Public Library will be held in the library on Tuesday, January 26 at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend.

The Library is again promoting the 'Adopt A Magazine' program. We would appreciate those who adopted a magazine last year, renewing the subscription again this year. We welcome any new donors who would like to help us with this program. The cost of subscriptions has increased a great deal the last few years. Because of budget restraints we have not been able to renew quite a few subscriptions or obtain any new ones.

In the outer entrance of the library we have discarded books, magazines and patterns for sale, at 50 cents for hardcovers, 25 cents for paperbacks, 10 cents for magazines and 25 cents for patterns. Come and check for any of your favorite authors. Proceeds from these sales go to buy new materials for the library.

New Books

The Atlas of Breeding Birds of Alberta - Informative and attractive, this book brings together the best and latest information on each of the province's nesting species.

Sink your teeth into some food for thought from the book that gives you Canada in a nutshell... Which Do You Prefer: Chunky or Smmoth? What Canadians eat, watch, read, buy and do on an average day, you can find it all in this humorous book by Heather Brazier.

Some books for our smallest patrons can be found in the children's area: Smudge, The Little Lost Lamb by well known author James Herriot and award winning illustrator Ruth Brown introduce their newest four-footed hero, Smudge. Smudge is a black and white lamb who one day finds himself without a way home.

Arthur's Dad by Ginette Anfousse - Arthur's dad is about to give up because he cannot find a babysitter for his son Arthur. He has had twenty three!!! A well illustrated book that won't fail to please young readers.

In the junior area are three

Judy Baer books: Something Old, Something New; Tomorrow's Promise and Yesterday's Dream These books are always an interesting read.

Houses of Hide and Earth by Bonnie Shemie - This book offers young readers an insight about the lives of the plains Indians and the material they used to construct their homes.

Obituary

SOLWAY, Joseph

On January 6, 1993, Joseph Benat Solway of Elk Point, Alberta, formerly of Cold Lake, passed away in Elk Point Hospital at the age of 77 years.

He is survived by his loving wife Rose of Elk Point; two sons, Albert and Bernice Solway of Montreal, Bob and Darlene Solway of Grand Centre; one daughter, Shirley and Greg McMann of Edmonton; one brother, Ambrose Solway and Lois Ruggles of Cold Lake; two sisters, Rose Crawford of Sacramento, California, Beulah and Adam Rudell of Cold Lake; twelve grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his first wife, Hilda, in 1970 and one sister, Emma Reuther.

Joe was a veteran of the Second World War and was buried with full Legion Honors. Funeral services were held Saturday, January 9, 1993 at the Cold Lake Legion Hall with Father Roger Guerin officiating. Interment followed in the St. Dominic's Cemetery.

Active Pallbearers: Darren Solway, Kerby McMann, Garry Ayers, Nyle Gelowitz, Harvey Lavoie and Terry Gieblhaus.

Honorary Pallbearers: Louis Bourque, Adam Rudell, Fred Bourque, Ken Reuther, Al Smith, Fred Olson, Al Matier, George Parenteau, Vern Franklin and Leon Pederson.

If friends so desire, memorials may be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Alberta, 10985-124 Street, Edmonton, Alberta, T5M 0H9.

Arrangements were in care of Memento Funeral Chapel (1975) Ltd., Bonnyville, Grand Centre and Glendon. 826-3113.

A big thank you to Meghan O'Neill for her collection of dolls, and Gary O'Neill for his collection of soap on display in the library's showcase.

Thank You

SOLWAY, Joseph

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to friends and family for the flowers, cards and support given upon the loss of our dear husband, dad, grandpa and great-grandpa, Joe Solway, who passed away on January 6, 1993. We would also like to thank the Nursing Staff and Doctors of the Elk Point Hospital for the excellent care and compassion given to Joe and his family; to Father Guerin for his service; to Debbie Lavoie for the beautiful and comforting Eulogy; to Diane Gieblhaus for the Bible readings; to Mrs. Betty Armstrong for the lovely hymns and music; to the Legion for their service and support, to the Ladies Auxiliary for the lunch provided; to the Pallbearers and Honorary Pallbearers; and to Memento Funeral Chapel (1975) Ltd.

You have all helped to make a difficult time a little easier.

Sincerely,
Rose Solway & Family

Baptists focus on families

Elk Point's Baptist Church congregation had a very worthwhile weekend of activities focusing on family life, enhanced by special guest speakers Larry and Krista Janz of Three Hills.

A very well attended Family Friendship Banquet started off the weekend, with many guests joining the congregation for a fine meal served by the F.G. Miller Grad Class. Following the meal, the group enjoyed singing along to some great old gospel songs, as well as a special children's presentation of songs, piano music and a 'talk show' by the Teen Group.

Margaret Modin introduced Mr. and Mrs. Janz, who are a well known ministry team who have spread the gospel in both Europe and Canada. Mr. Janz has also been to Russia several times, and showed slides of his latest trip before the Sunday morning service. He had a stirring message to offer the Saturday evening congregation as well, and he and his wife facilitated a Marriage Enrichment workshop on Sunday afternoon, following a potluck dinner.

BEAR HUGS FOR BAPTISTS - The youngsters at Elk Point Baptist Church were visited by a friendly, huggy bear on Saturday night during their portion of the entertainment following the Family Friendship Banquet.

NEAT bests Johnson

The North East Alberta Track Club had quite a weekend at the Knights of Columbus Indoor Track Meet at Saskatoon, Jan 9-10.

They even did better than Canadian Olympian Ben Johnson.

While NEAT took home nine medals, Johnson didn't even finish a race - he false started twice and was eliminated from the men's 60-metres.

Elk Point's Erica Nielsen will have to make some room on her mantle, after finishing second in the bantam girls' 600 metres and third in the 300 metres.

She also had a respectable showing in the long jump, just missing out on a bronze medal by inches with a fourth-place finish.

Joni Matthews, also from Elk Point, won the midget girls' 300 metres and finished fourth in the long jump.

Dewberry's Nathan Brown should have given Johnson a few pointers on how to run 60 metres, as he sprinted to a silver medal in the bantam boys' 60 metres.

Curling news from the hack

Welcome back from the holiday season. League curlers may have noticed a big difference in the ice this past week. Thanks to the installation of a water de-ionizing system, the ice is now a lot keener and more consistent. Sheets 2, 3 and 4 are near perfect, with sheet 1 still causing some fits of exasperation, but our icemaker is quickly getting it in shape.

Curlers will also notice a big difference in the lounge upstairs. Carpenters have been hard at work renovating and enlarging the bar area, and a larger cooler has been installed. Speaking of the bar, we're always on the lookout for workers during bonspiels. It's a lot of fun, and helps your club out a lot. Please volunteer with Monique, Mark or Fred.

If anyone would be interested in directing the operations of the downstairs concession booth during bonspiels, we could sure use the help. Please contact any of the executive for further information.

Good luck to all the curlers taking part in the 10th Annual Oilmen's Bonspiel on January 28 - 31st. This looks like it could be one of the biggest Oilmen's 'spiels in several years.

Our other bonspiel dates are as follows:

Feb 5 - 7: Hog Spiel (Town and Country)

Feb. 19 - 21: Mixed Bonspiel

Feb. 26 - 28: Men's Bonspiel

Please start making your arrangements now. Contact Dave at 724-4200 to register.

We are also going to hold a Junior Open Bonspiel in March for all levels of competitors. This looks like it could be a lot of fun, so think about it and plan to attend.

The Lindbergh Mixed Bonspiel is being held at the Windsor Club January 22 to 24. In the past, many Elk Point rinks have gone to this enjoyable spiel. Give Terri a call at 724-3967 or Bill at 724-3583.

Well, that's all for now. See you...in the hack!

County of St. Paul No. 19

Toadflax Control Meeting

Toadflax, also known as Wild Snapdragon is considered a noxious weed in the Province of Alberta.

Toadflax is a perennial weed that spreads by root and seed. It can grow up to 2 1/2 feet high and has a small yellow Snapdragon like flower. This weed is becoming a big problem in the Lafond and Lake Eliza areas, because of the lack of Agricultural in-crop chemicals that will control this weed. This County of St. Paul No. 19 is trying to contain it to these areas, but needs the cooperation of local producers to do so.

The County of St. Paul No. 19 Agricultural Service Board will be holding a TOADFLAX CONTROL MEETING on MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1993 - 7:30 P.M. AT THE COUNTY OFFICE, LOWER LEVEL, for anybody that is interested.

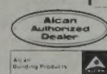

For more information, please contact Larry Lamothe or Dennis Berghem at 645-3301.

ING SIDING

DEWBERRY WINS ATOM TOURNAMENT - Aaron Hansen scored five goals and Luke Hanna a single as Dewberry Atoms skated to a resounding win over Elk Point Capitols in the A Finals of the 8 - team tournament which kicked off Minor Hockey Week in Elk Point. Doug McPherson of Capitol Drugs was on hand to present their trophies. Dustin Sieben scored the lone Capitols goal. Both teams were undefeated coming into the game.

A SIDE RUNNERS UP - Elk Point Capitols placed second in the tourney, as well as joining the Lakeland Tire Raiders as hosts of the event. They received trophies from Lakeland Tire.

B FINALS WINNERS - Marwayne Atoms had only one win in their pool round robin, but advanced to the finals on their goal ratio, and had their second win of the tournament when it counted, defeating Mallaig Monarchs 8 - 4 for the Lakeland Tire trophies.

B RUNNERS UP - Mallaig Monarchs had two wins coming into the B Finals but were not so lucky against Marwayne. Their trophies were donated by Capitol Drugs.
